W. CLARK, one of the most successful farmers in Horse Hills settlement, has just had a fine new frame house built at Point La Pie. The house has a commanding position on the high river bank at the Point and is a good specimen of northwestern architecture, in fact it gives Rhine-like appearance to the river at the bend. Mr. Clark has a fine herd of thoroughbred Durham shorthorns in the breeding of which he has been most successful, and he has now the finest house in the settlement.

THE NORTHWEST.

The steamer Northwest arrived on Sunday evening, having left Prince Albert on Saturday, July 18th. She brought 45,000 feet of lumber and 1000 sacks of flour to Battleford, and 600 sacks of flour to Pritt.

The officers were the same as on her former trip, and the passengers to Edmonton two Misses Macdonald, of Prince Albert, and Rev. Horace Potter, C. M. missionary at Victoria. The water was at a fair stage, but the boat was detained in all five days by contrary winds. She was also delayed in Sucker creek rapids on Saturday, where she struck a rock which tore all the paddles off the wheel and might easily have sunk the boat. The officers say that the alleged river improvements made a number of years ago are little if any real improvement.

Instead of the actual boat channel being cleared a great deal of money was expended on the river channel, which, while it did not adverse currents, cannot be used, and in some cases rocks or pieces of rocks taken from the proposed impracticable channel have been dropped in the actual channel, thereby impeding instead of assisting navigation.

It would be of great advantage to clear the more dangerous rocks from the active channel and would cost only a small amount of money. The Northwest will be available for excursions for a short time and will then be hauled out of the river for the winter, the crew returning by row boat to Prince Albert.

MASON'S AT CHURCH.

THE members of the Edmonton Lodge A. F. & A. M. met at the Masonic Hall last night and proceeded to attend divine service at the Methodist church. Notwithstanding the wet weather nearly forty members of the order turned out. The seats in the centre of the church were reserved for them and on their arrival a large congregation filled the church. The musical part of the service was creditably performed by the young choir assisted by Mr. Hockley on the cornet, and W. G. Plowright on the violin. The anthem sung was "Fear thou not."

Mr. J. Dyke, who wrote the emblem of the Masonic order took for his text I Cor. 16:13, 14 and 15: "Watch, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." Let all your things be done with charity, and said it was a great pleasure to him to extend a welcome to the brethren of the fraternity who met in that service. If there was one feeling better than another it was in connection with such principles as were represented by masonry. He recognized the delicacy of his task in carefully guarding the secrets, while emphasizing the principles of the great order. It appealed to the fundamental principles of manhood. One of the main points here was that they could only travel the journey and whatever helped a man to a happy and prosperous journey, to attain a usefulness, and enjoy this life, should be encouraged.

It was on that principle that he had identified himself with the order of masonry. They had doubtless heard at times great outrages against secret societies because some societies had adopted the secret work and organized for murderous purposes, but the fact of some having abused the principles, did not detract from the good of the principles themselves.

He recognized the secret societies because they were four main classes of masonry, strength, morality, memory and his text, and he was happy to say that many societies had adopted the secret work and organized for murderous purposes, but the fact of some having abused the principles, did not detract from the good of the principles themselves.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, AUGUST 3rd, 1896.

RAILWAY COMPETITION.

The Free Press of Winnipeg is the leading newspaper of Manitoba and the Northwest. It has been the leading newspaper for many years. Therefore anything it says on any subject attracts a great deal of attention not only by reason of the general circulation of the paper, but also by reason of the confidence which people have been used to place in it, and the more so as it is continually declaring itself to be the unbiased, non-partisan friend of the West. In pursuance of its duty as a friend of the West it reads the member for Alberta a lecture in a recent issue, the text being an article which appeared in the BULLETIN supporting the construction of a railway from Winnipeg through the Saskatchewan valley and Cariboo to the Pacific coast, as a competitor to the C. P. R. The Free Press article says: "When the member for Alberta gets to Ottawa he must endeavor to learn as quickly as possible that other expenditures are required in and for the Dominion than those immediately connected with that portion of it known as the Northwest. And he should teach himself to refrain as much as he can from representing his own portion of the Northwest as the only portion requiring consideration. He must learn to take a broader view of things than to suppose that everything of consequence in the world is represented by Edmonton and the Saskatchewan valley." This quotation is a sample of the friendship of the Free Press to the Northwest. Before the elections it pointed out the brilliant promises of western development held out by Sir Charles Tupper, and since the election it has never ceased to be moan the danger that western development would not receive enough attention at the hands of the new government. The BULLETIN pointed out according to its humble ability one of the greatest necessities for this western development that the Free Press has so much at heart, and forthwith it declares that the proposition is sectional and a reflection on the intelligence or the fairness of the editor of the BULLETIN in his capacity as member for Alberta. It does not approve of the suggestion of a line of railway to compete with the Canada Pacific, but it does not say so. That is why it used its circulation and the influence which a former owner established for it in the public mind, to draw public attention away from a practical proposition for the development, not of a part, but of the whole Northwest, by arguing for a "broader view." It is not "views" that the people of the Northwest are hankering for just now. They want a change from present conditions,—as shown very plainly by their votes at the late election, and the first change they want is from railway monopoly to railway competition. The Free Press is either willing to assist in bringing about such a change or it is not. If it is willing it is the friend of the people. If it is not willing—and it evidently is not—it is the enemy of the people of the West and should be recognized as such. The Free Press would probably have the newspaper and public men of the West to sit down for the next few years and spin theories and exchange views as to what could be done to secure western development, and express astonishment that it had been so slow. It says: "Through other influences and moved by other considerations we will get around to the question of northwestern development." That expresses the idea exactly. But the masters of the Free Press have been too long already getting around to this question, and the people themselves now propose to take a hand in the game. The question is whether the country generally will be more greatly advanced by aiding a fast Atlantic line of steamers to the amount of $750,000 a year or paying that amount to receive competition with the C. P. R. from Winnipeg to the coast. The BULLETIN takes the ground that the competing railway would do—not Edmonton, or the Saskatchewan valley, or even the whole Northwest—but all Canada more good than the fast Atlantic service would, and if retrenchment is to be the order of the day asks that the railway, not the steamboat line, receive the first consideration. Evidently the Free Press thinks the steamboat line would benefit the country most, and strange to say Sir Donald Smith and Sir Wm. Van Horne, the special friends of the Northwest settler and the disinterested friends of the Dominion, are of exactly the same opinion.

FREE SILVER.

The United States registered $12,094,877,793 of real estate mortgages in the ten years between 1880 and 1890. Besides these nine and a half million mortgages for amounts not stated were registered during the same period. The amount was probably as great as that of the registered mortgages which were about the same number. Herein lies the great strength of the silver movement. Owing to the shrinkage of values of every kind of product during the past three years the ability to meet this vast mass of indebtedness has decreased. The proposition to make 53 cents worth of silver pass for a dollar means unquestionably the wiping out at one stroke of 47 per cent. of this tremendous indebtedness and naturally gives every debtor that much of an inducement to vote and work for so-called free silver. At the same time the premium of 43 per cent. would cause a great deal of silver now uncoined to be coined and put in circulation, it would cause silver mines now shut down to be re-opened and mines now running at a minimum to be run at a maximum capacity. This would certainly increase the circulation of money and would give the debtor that much a better chance of paying off the remaining 53 per cent. of his debt—or what is much more desirable in the eyes of many, enable him to contract still more indebtedness. In view of these facts, in view of the present condition of business in the United States, in view of the fact that no other party offers any immediate relief from that condition, and in view of the impossibility of the sound money democrats uniting with the McKinley tariff republicans, there is every prospect that Bryan will be the next president of the United States. The strong opposition of the eastern moneyed men to free silver lies in the fact that it would mean the reduction of their wealth invested in mortgages by 43 per cent.; and that is where most of their wealth lies. Were it not for this they could take as much advantage of free silver as the mine owners. It is simply a fight between debtor and creditor, and as the debtors are necessarily most numerous and the election is by manhood suffrage, there can be very little doubt which will win. The republican party will have to manipulate the ballot boxes better than they have ever yet been able to do in order to win. In every previous election the money power was on their side. Now by a clever turn of the wheel their own money is the great leverage against them, and the more they oppose free silver the more certain Bryan is to win.

SLAVE LAKE MISSIONS.

Rev. Mr. Holmes, Church of England missionary, arrived in town last Wednesday evening from Lesser Slave lake. The buildings of the mission over which Mr. Holmes presides are on Buffalo lake, a small lake off Slave lake. The Roman Catholic mission is on the opposite side of the same lake. The English church is a log building which seats about 250 people. The school house is 24 x 30 with a kitchen attached. About 30 children board at the school and receive instruction there. The mission house is 18 x 26 and has two stories. There is also a well fitted hospital 14 x 18. During the past eight years, in face of almost insurmountable difficulties on account of the indifference of the Indians, who are Crees, 43 adults have become communicants. The work amongst the old

Indians is at times almost disheartening, but amongst the children the missionaries have every encouragement. They find them tractable and quick to learn. In addition to the usual education in the school the boys are taught agriculture, and the girls sewing and domestic duties. Many of the Indians are industrious and have gardens which are well cultivated, while others plant their vegetables and then are compelled to go hunting and fishing for a subsistence, and find their gardens overgrown with weeds on their return. The Hudson's Bay employees attend the mission there. At Lesser Slave lake proper there are about 60 communants and at Wapuskow Mr. Weaver has baptized about 40 children. Mr. Curry is the teacher and Miss Durwell, matron at Buffalo lake. There are about 10 head of cattle and horses at the mission. Mr. Holmes brought with him an Indian boy thirteen years old, who was taken into the mission house seven years ago and who attends to the stock. He will be placed at school in Winnipeg and arrangements will be made for him to learn a trade there, probably carpentry. Mr. Holmes regrets to have to complain that some traders take a liquid, in small bottles the size of essence bottles, which they call "ginger." This when drunk by the Indians intoxicates them and thus causes many riotous scenes. Three of these small bottles full will make a man stupidly drunk who would be but little affected by a much larger amount of whiskey. A lot of it was given to the Indians near the lake one Sunday recently and produced a most deplorable scene of riot and drunkenness. Also another matter requiring attention is the laying of poison and starting of fires. Many fur-bearing animals and several valuable dogs were poisoned last winter, and at the Landing a cow met the same fate. The Indians are indignant at these things and look with the greatest suspicion on all strange white men, and they are even afraid to pick berries for use for fear they themselves will be poisoned. Mr. Holmes is very much afraid that if this continues there will be serious trouble with the Indians. They are also getting discontented at so many white men trapping their fur and thus depriving them of their means of subsistence. With the poison and fires added to the ordinary trapping by the whites the Indians will soon be helpless. Fires were run last year all the way from the Landing to the Lesser Slave river. Mr. Holmes left on Friday's train for the synod at Regina after which he will proceed to his old home in England on furlough for a year, the first in ten years. He sails on the Labrador on August 29th.

CREAMERIES.Domestic Agency,
Beaver Lake, 23rd July, '96.

In view of the necessity of improving the condition of the settlers of this district and the country generally, the time has arrived when, if steps leading to a better system of agriculture are not adopted, the country will retrograde, and the inducements for foreign settlers (on whom so much depends) to come in will be so few that they will look to other fields and our present numbers will gradually decrease.

I beg to lay before you for your earnest consideration the advisability of forming Creamery and Cheese Companies under the Ordinances of the Northwest Territories in the various settlements.

I propose calling meetings at central points at an early date, at which I will explain the legal and other points and be prepared to give a full explanation of the steps to be taken, and the probable results to be obtained.

Hoping you will attend, prepared to act in the best interests of this magnificent country, I am

Your obedient servant,
JOSEPH V. KILDAHL,
Acting Agent.

BEAVER LAKE CREAMERIES.

J. V. Kildahl, Dominion lands agent at Beaver lake, writes under date of July 21st.

The crops here, particularly wheat, are badly damaged by the extreme heat, but I think 60 per cent will be saved by the rain of Tuesday night.

I had a preliminary meeting at the Tofield school house on Saturday the 18th. Attended by the leading settlers, W. A. Hunt in the chair when the project of starting a creamery and cheese factory was very well received and arrangements made for a general meeting about the 1st of October, when I will have received statistics &c., to lay before them as to the cost.

My intention is to try and start companies at Edmonton, Beaver lake, Beaver Hills and Fort Saskatchewan, to be run under the same management. Of course this is a very large project and there are very great difficulties in the way, but if I can get the right men interested, it is quite feasible. The great trouble is the uncertainty of government assistance, without which it is simply impossible for the farmers to go into any matter of the kind, and in this connection, I would suggest that if it be granted, it should be in such a way that the machine men could not attack it.

MANAWAN CORRESPONDENCE.

Haying is in full swing in this section. The hay is extra good. Crops of all kinds are good, especially wheat.

Mrs. Mobly, formerly of Lacombe, is here and will make an extended visit to her old friend and companion, Miss Lola M. Bibbee.

Alex. Steward and Duncan Kennedy and family left last week for Rainy River district. They left by prairie schooner. We wish them success.

The Cimarron boys have imported from Manitoba two thoroughbred Shorthorn bulls of extra quality for service in their herd this summer. We understand a handsome price was paid for these animals.

Hughson Bros. have moved into their new cheese factory although not yet completed. We understand that a meeting will be held there shortly for the purpose of getting them to join other districts in order to give dairying a more prominent place in the farmers' minds and also for the purpose of soliciting government aid towards creameries and cheese factories. The date is not yet fixed.

Rev. J. McDougall, of Morley, took away from the lake last week the herd of cattle owned by Rev. Mr. McLachlin, and which has been so successfully taken care of by Mr. J. Batty for the last four years. The herd consisted of about sixty head.

The happiest man in town is Mr. Robert Littlechild. It is a boy.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The official report of the third convention of the Northern Alberta Sunday school union has reached us. The convention was held on July 7, 8 and 9 in the Presbyterian church Innisfail.

The first session met at 4 p. m. on Tuesday July 7th, and was occupied with reading of minutes of previous convention, arranging for various sessions, and appointing of a committee to draft a sympathetic letter to Mr. N. Stanish who is in Ontario under special treatment for his eyesight.

The second session was held at 7.30 on the Tuesday evening. The president delivered his address giving a history of the movement, while the speakers on the subject of Sunday school work were Northern Alberta, encouraging existing schools by visitation and correspondence, and assisting in establishing schools where there are none, also the encouraging of teachers and other workers. A nominating committee was appointed to report at the afternoon session next day. Rev. Mr. Spear read a paper on "The teacher and his work" contributed by Rev. G. McQueen who was unable to attend the convention.

The third session was at 9.30 a. m. on Wednesday July 8th. The Secretary presented a report showing number of schools, reporting 40; officers and teachers, 195; scholars, 1452; average attendance of scholars, 1804. These with schools not reported gave a total 1800 Sunday school workers and scholars in the Union. A report of the work has been sent to the international convention at Boston, Mass. A. S. A. acknowledged. The treasurer's report showed a balance of four dollars in hand. The report of the special committee appointed at last convention to deal with the question of extending the boundaries of the Union was adopted as follows. The extension of the Union to the whole of Alberta; the organization of sub-districts as follows: 1st Edmonton district, embracing the territory north from a line drawn east and west across Alberta ten miles north of Weisaskiwin; 2nd, Lacombe district, including the country from the southern boundary of Edmonton district to five miles south of Olds; 3rd, Calgary district including all the territory from the southern boundary of Lacombe district to ten miles south of High River; 4th, Macleod district covering all the country east of Calgary district to the boundary. Each of these districts to have its own officers and to hold an annual convention and a general convention to be held every three years at some centre, except for the whole of Alberta, at which the several districts shall report. Rev. Mr. Lock of Red Deer read a paper on marks of Sabbath school success. New schools were reported at Fairview, Viamede and Pleasant Valley.

The fourth session was held at 2.30 p. m. the same day. The nominating committee recommended the following: President Rev. E. J. Chegwin, Lacombe; 1st, vice-president Rev. J. P. Grant, Pincher Creek; 2nd, vice-president Rev. T. G. Wanless, Calgary; secretary, G. A. Reid, Lacombe; treasurer, Mrs. P. McDonald, Urquhart, P. O.; conveners, Edmonton district, Rev. A. McDonald; Lacombe district, G. A. Reid, Lacombe; Calgary district, Rev. A. W. Ross; Pincher Creek. These were elected unanimously. Mrs. P. McDonald read a paper on "Elementary work," and Rev. Dr. Grant, Pincher Creek. The "question drawer" was also opened and conducted by Rev. D. Sparke.

The fifth session was at 7.30 p. m. Rev. J. Fornie in the chair, who delivered an address on "Review." The "question drawer" was also opened and conducted by Rev. D. Sparke.

The sixth session met at 10 a. m. on Thursday July 9th. A discussion on "Children's service" interpersed with music occupied the whole time when the convention dissolved.

The officers for Lacombe district were elected as follows: President, G. A. Reid, Lacombe; 1st, vice-president Rev. F. W. Lock, Red Deer; 2nd, vice-president Rev. P. Naismith, Olds; secretary, G. H. Jamison, Lacombe; treasurer, J. Detler, Innisfail.

GENERAL NEWS.

Rye cutting commenced at the experimental farm, Indian Head, on July 27th, and barley on the 31st, wheat is well advanced.

John Clark, the newly-elected liberal member for North Grey, died last Monday at his home near Owen Sound. He was a man of magnificent physique, and his death has caused the greatest surprise throughout Ontario.

Battleford Herald: Senator McInnes, of British Columbia, is pressing his claims to the interior department as being a western man. He is too far west. If Mr. Laurier really wants as head of that department a gentleman who will bring practical knowledge to bear on its management, he will find him in Mr. Oliver of Alberta. And he will find him a gentleman acceptable to the great majority of the people of the Territories; and that is perhaps of more importance to Mr. Laurier, one who holds a perfectly safe constituency.

More than twice the amount voted for the removal of the Canadian Cross from Manitoba has been spent and less than half of them deported. About a hundred of them are making for Dakota, and the cavalry troop has been sent in pursuit. In several localities through the state small bands have escaped the vigilance of the troops. A greater proportion, however, have made their way into the Dakotas, Wyoming and Idaho. — Saskatchewan Herald.

Prince Albert Advocate: "The government which Mr. Laurier has formed contains the strongest men from each province and if he makes as good selection for the Minister of the Interior, the country will be well satisfied. The Hon. Jos. Martin is a man well fitted for the position if a seat can be found for him in Manitoba; failing him, Mr. Oliver, of Edmonton, is a good man, and although he is a new man in Dominion politics, he is well acquainted with the west and its needs, and is a thorough western man."

Saskatchewan Herald: An amalgamator, for capturing fine gold, has been invented by a British Columbia and will revolutionize gold washing on this river as the Sacramento. It can be made large enough to extract the gold from two thousand tons of hydraulic tailings daily, down to that of a one-man machine weighing only a hundred and fifty pounds, but capable of handling ten or twelve tons of sand or gravel a day. These machines will take up gold that now escapes from even the most perfect ones in use.

The 1895 report of the board of trade of British Columbia has the following regarding Cariboo and mineral development: It is believed by many of the oldest and best informed miners that mineral wealth equal to that of any other part of the province lies in Cariboo, the rivers of that district having yielded in past years nearly fifty million dollars in gold. The auriferous deposits are very rich and extend over a very large area. Works are now in progress for hydraulic mining on a large scale, but it will be at least another year before the mines are fully opened up. The realization of the vast mineral wealth of Cariboo will stimulate every other industry, and for the agriculture the province affords exceptional advantages—fertile lands, mild climate and certainty of a large expansion of those markets which even now are compelled to draw from beyond the borders agricultural supplies to the value of about two and a half millions of dollars annually.

The Regina Leader has this to say of their proprietor N. F. Davin, M. P. "Mr. Davin is studying law to as certain whether he may not be able to harass the manager of the Leader by a suit for damages. Meanwhile would like that the asperities of the fight should be forgotten. We are not complaining. If Mr. Davin is not satisfied with the results of his traitorous conduct at Ottawa, he is welcome to all the satisfaction he can get in the courts or anywhere else. But we are not going to fall upon his neck and congratulate him upon his election. Not much. We fought him up to election day as well as our inexperience and modest powers permitted. And we are not glad that he is elected. If, however, Mr. Davin had polled a reasonable majority on the 23rd, we would have been in a difficult position. But he did not do so. The independent intelligence of West Assinabina pronounced very strongly against him. When with the official vote, the police vote, the rascally election law, the onslaught made by priests upon Catholic Germans and Half breeds, and the active aid of more than one deputy returning officer, Mr. Davin was able to poll only a half of the total vote, he must admit that he met a practical defeat and the very pronounced condemnation of the unbiased vote of the district. In such a circumstance we think that if there are grounds for protesting the election—which we are assured there are—the protest should be made and prosecuted to a finish." In case Mr. Davin is unseated, the Leader considers that Mr. McInnes who was defeated by the returning officer should be the government candidate.

CAMPAIGN MEETING.

About 100 electors attended Mr. Rutherford's meeting in Robertson Hall last Friday night. Councillor Sanderson was voted to the chair. The electric lights went out at the commencement of Mr. Rutherford's address and the oil lamps had to be lit.

Mr. Rutherford thought the successor of such men as Dr. Wilson and Mr. Oliver would find it difficult to perform the duties of M. L. A. in so satisfactory manner as those gentlemen had done. One matter to be dealt with was the construction of roads and bridges. Last year the Territorial government spent $67,059 on this work which was too small an amount to spread over the Territories. Representations should be made to the Dominion government to secure a larger amount. The policy to be pursued in this expenditure should be to make communication as free as possible and give settlers easy access to their own local markets. The government should be in advance of settlement, not lagging behind it. The Territorial money could only be spent in Territorial election districts. The Dominion government should build colonization roads to Yellowhead Pass, Peace River and Beaver lake. If returned he would deal impartially with every part of the district. He would consult with the settlers as to the spending of the money and they should have an opportunity of working on the roads themselves. (applause) He would also see the work was well and properly done. The Territorial school law required some amendment to give larger aid to rural schools. Regarding law fees, the speaker pointed out that mortgage foreclosures were made under the procedure provided by the Dominion government. Much money had to be spent in advertising auctioneers' fees, &c. He would advocate a change in the procedure so as to have fees reduced here. He advocated amending the small debt procedure here. This could best be done by appointing a resident judge at Edmonton.

A list of questions was handed in to the candidates by the W. C. T. U. Mr. Rutherford said that after the decision of the privy council recently given, prohibition could only be introduced by the Dominion government to whom the question should be put. He was in favor of the plebiscite.

M. McCauley, who was received with applause, said, that at the request of over 300 electors he was a candidate for M. L. A. He thought he had a little practical knowledge of the district. Had been accused of not being qualified for the position he sought. Perhaps his education did not qualify him as well as Mr. Rutherford's did that gentleman, but if Mr. Rutherford lived there 16 years he would not have the practical knowledge of the district that he (the speaker) had. (applause).

He had helped to build roads and bridges since 1882, and his experience would prove useful. The seasons change here, and it was necessary that a man should know where bad places would occur in wet seasons so as to build the roads in such a manner that they would be serviceable in wet as well as dry seasons. His plan for spending the money would be to divide it as fairly as possible amongst all parts of the district and then consult with the settlers of each and allow the majority to decide how and where it should be spent. He would treat every section alike and fairly. Was glad to find Mr. Rutherford had at last fallen in with his views on lawyers' fees. He thought strong representations should be made to the Dominion government to change foreclosure procedure. He would favor giving the same grant to rural schools as to town schools in every case where the necessary number of attendance had been made. The statute labor law should be amended and made effective. The ordinances should be made more simple in their phrasology so that all could readily understand them, and he would favor appointing a solicitor to do this work at Regina in the same way that municipal solicitors did for municipalities. Mr. McCauley closed his speech by replying favorably to the W. C. T. U. questions and he said that the Territorial government was the only provincial government in Canada that had power to deal with the question of prohibition.

GENERAL NEWS.

Subscriptions are being asked for in England for the rebuilding of the house of the Bishop of Mackenzie River N. W. T. The residence was destroyed by fire some time since.

Free Press, July 27: Rev. R. M. Hawkins, rector of Christ church, Brighton, Eng., and a prominent member of the established church, being on a visit to Winnipeg, preached before two city congregations yesterday, St. George's and Holy Trinity.

Free Press, July 28: Senator

McNeil is still hovering around the capital but his chances for the cabinet vacancy are said to be on the wane. The report that Sir

Donald Smith will retain the high commissionership is confirmed to-day. The arrangement, however, is understood to be temporal.

The Globe's Ottawa special says: "There are in the new house of commons 63 lawyers, 32 farmers, 26 merchants, 21 physicians, 19 gentlemen, 12 manufacturers, 10 journalists, 6 mill owners, 3 contractors, 3 real estate agents, 2 surveyors, 1 veterinary surgeon, 1 township clerk, 2 distillers. 1 financial agent, 1 insurance manager, 1 banker, 1 ship owner, 1 rancher, 1 oil-refiner, 1 printer and 1 civil engineer. The lawyers and gentlemen combined form nearly two-fifths of the house.

The Scientific American, of New York, has signalized its 50th anniversary by the publication of a very handsome 72-page special number which contains a review of the development of science and the industrial arts in the United States during the past 50 years. It was an ambitious undertaking, and the work has been well done. The many articles are thoroughly technical, and they are written in a racy and popular style, which makes the whole volume—it is nothing less, being equal to a book of 442 ordinary pages—thoroughly readable. It is inclosed for preservation in a handsome cover, and is sold at the prices of ten cents.

An excursion from Toronto to British Columbia has been arranged for members of the Toronto board of trade. The date fixed is Aug. 10th and the return fare $100. Hon. R. R. Dobell in the course of a speech said: "Some people find it strange that an old conservative should have consented to form part of a party which is in the minority. I have however followed out the line of conduct that I have always followed, that is seeking to do my best to promote the interests of the Dominion. If I have joined Mr. Laurier it is because I recognize in him a true Canadian, prepared to do justice to all, and to judge all questions that come before him strictly from the standpoint of equity. My past is a guarantee what I shall do in the future. For forty years I have invested all my interests in my district, I may even say in your parish, therefore it is supremely ridiculous to suppose that I could sacrifice Quebec and Levin."

Hon. W. Laurier at St. John Quebec said: "In your address you spoke about the school question. I thank you for having drawn my attention to a question which has embittered public opinion for the past six years. The conservative party during six years did not succeed in settling the school question. Although I have not been in power a fortnight, the Tory press is crying out: Why do you not settle the school question? I only want six months in which to settle the question. If I am not mistaken before that time is over, the question will be settled without exciting the prejudices of anybody, and rendering justice to whom justice is due. (Applause.) And not by using violence will we manage to settle the question. I declared in the house, in Ontario, and in the province of Quebec, that the only manner by which the question could be settled was by means of conciliation. I believe future events will show that I am right. I am now in the presence of the responsibility of my words. I gave to the electorate before the 23rd of June, and the time has come to keep my word. I accept the responsibility, and I hope before six months that I will have the pleasure of saying to the people. I have kept that word which I gave you."
